MYTE 1

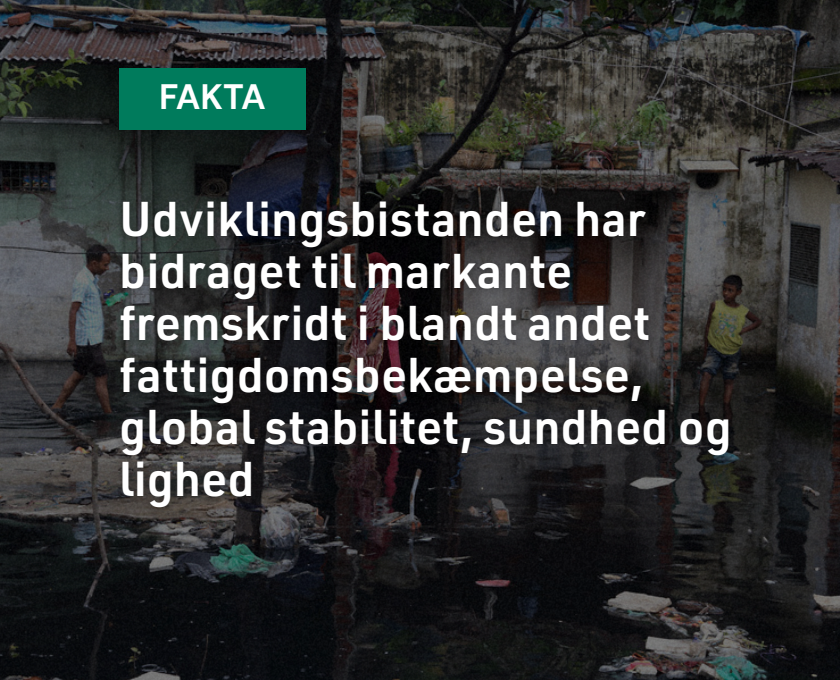

Udviklingsbistand har ikke virket

A photograph of a slum area with a flooded street. In the background, there are several small, dilapidated buildings with corrugated metal roofs and peeling paint. A tree stands in the middle ground. In the foreground, a man in a light blue shirt and dark shorts is walking through the floodwater on the left. A woman in a red headscarf is partially visible in the center. On the right, a young boy in a yellow tank top and blue shorts is standing in the water. The water is dark and reflects the surrounding environment. A large, dark purple rectangular box is overlaid on the bottom right, containing the word 'FALSK' in white capital letters. Above this box, the text 'Udviklingsbistand har ikke virket' is written in white. At the top center, the text 'MYTE 1' is enclosed in a white rounded rectangle.

FALSK

The background image shows a slum environment. In the foreground, a street is flooded with dark, murky water, littered with plastic waste and debris. Two young boys are visible: one on the left in a light blue shirt and dark shorts, and another on the right in a yellow tank top and blue shorts. They are standing in the water. In the background, there are several small, dilapidated buildings with corrugated metal roofs and peeling paint. A tree trunk is visible in the center. The overall scene depicts poverty and poor living conditions.

FAKTA

Udviklingsbistanden har
bidraget til markante
fremskridt i blandt andet
fattigdomsbekæmpelse,
global stabilitet, sundhed og lighed

The background image shows a slum area with several people, including children, walking through a muddy, unpaved street. There are simple, weathered buildings with corrugated metal roofs and walls. The scene is somewhat dark and gritty, emphasizing the poverty mentioned in the text.

FAKTA

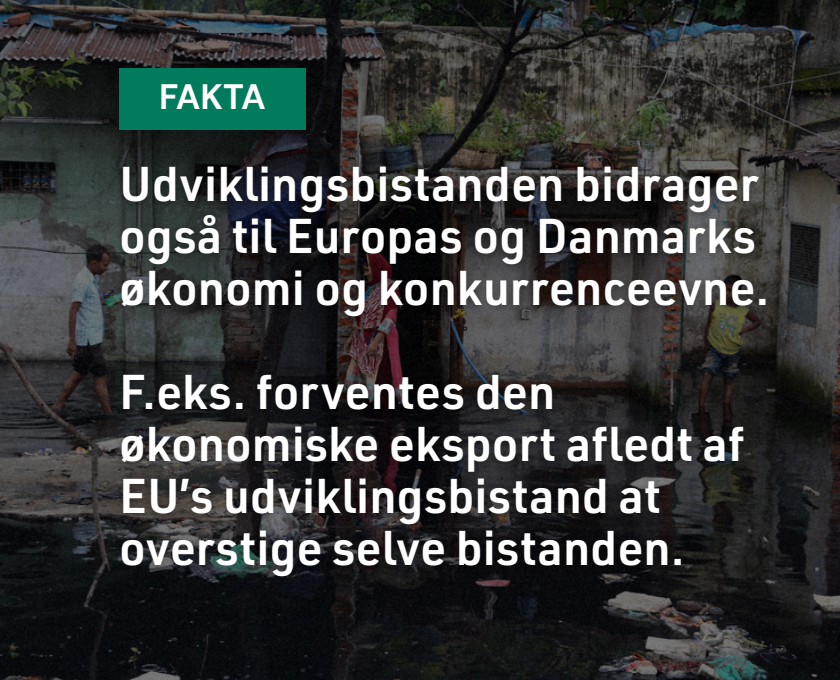

Ifølge Verdensbanken er antallet af mennesker, som lever i ekstrem fattigdom faldet fra cirka 2,2 milliarder til cirka 800 millioner siden 1990.

Den forventede globale levealder er steget fra 65 år til 74 år, og børnedødeligheden er faldet med næsten 60 procent.

The background image shows a slum area with a flooded street. In the foreground, there is a large, dark, stagnant pool of water reflecting the surrounding environment. Debris, including plastic bags and other trash, is scattered in the water. In the middle ground, several people are visible: a man in a light blue shirt and dark shorts is walking on the left, a woman in a red headscarf and patterned dress is standing in the water, and another person is partially visible on the right. The background features dilapidated buildings with peeling paint and corrugated metal roofs. A tree trunk is visible in the center-left. The overall scene depicts a state of poverty and environmental neglect.

FAKTA

Udviklingsbistand kan ikke alene skabe udvikling – den drivende kraft er landene selv. Men udviklingssamarbejdet har været en central årsag til disse fremskridt.

The background image shows a slum area with several people walking through a narrow, unpaved path. The buildings are old and weathered, with some having corrugated metal roofs. There is a lot of debris and trash on the ground, and the overall scene suggests a poor, developing environment.

FAKTA

Udviklingsbistanden bidrager også til Europas og Danmarks økonomi og konkurrenceevne.

F.eks. forventes den økonomiske eksport afledt af EU's udviklingsbistand at overstige selve bistanden.

FALSK

The background image is a high-angle, top-down view of a small, narrow wooden boat. The boat is packed with people and various goods, including bags of produce and other items. It is moving through a very narrow, deep channel of water, which appears to be a natural rock formation or a man-made cut. The water is dark and turbulent, with white foam visible on the sides of the boat, suggesting a rough or fast-moving current. The overall tone is somber and urgent, reflecting the theme of the text.

FAKTA

Bekæmpelse af korrupsion er et vigtigt og fælles
anliggende for Danmark
og vores partnerlande

The background image shows a person in a small wooden boat on a river. The boat is filled with various goods, including baskets of fruit (like apples and oranges) and bags. The person is wearing a dark jacket and a hat. The river is calm, and the surrounding landscape is visible in the background.

FAKTA

Danmark har nultolerance over for korruption og danske bistandsmidler bliver revideret og kontrolleret grundigt. Kun en meget lille del går tabt: I 2025 gik hvad der svarer til 0,017 % af bistanden tabt til korruption.

FAKTA

Danmark giver bistand til nogle af verdens fattigste udviklingslande. Et samfund med svage offentlige strukturer er ofte plaget af korruption. Det er jo bl.a. for at bringe samfund ud af korruption, at vi giver bistanden, og at vi støtter de organisationer og myndigheder, der vil noget andet.

FAKTA

Administrationen af udviklingsbistanden er skåret ind til benet

FAKTA

De seneste 25 år har Udenrigsministeriet stort set uafbrudt effektiviseret og skåret i de medarbejdere, der forvalter bistanden.

Danske civilsamfundsorganisationer må maksimalt bruge 7% af midlerne på administration.

FAKTA

Fagpersonale med erfaring og faglig ekspertise er afgørende for udviklingssamarbejdet.

Skal man blive ved med at opnå resultater, er det afgørende at have indsigt i de samfund og kontekster, vi arbejder i og forståelse for de partnere vi samarbejder med.
